MEET OUR FACULTY

John Sanford

John Sanford began his teaching experience in 1980 after graduating with a bachelor's degree from Whittier College. As a third-grade schoolteacher, he taught in a bilingual classroom for two years in the East Whittier City School District and then joined the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department. After graduating from the Sheriff's Academy, he spent 31 years as a Deputy Sheriff and worked a variety of assignments that included patrol, narcotics, and a training instructor at the Sheriff's Training Academy.

In 2014, John was hired as an adjunct faculty member at both Fullerton College and East Los Angeles College. He has taught various classes in criminal justice that include homicide, narcotics, organized crime, criminal investigation, and introduction to criminal justice. John's classes reflect an interactive, hands-on approach to law enforcement and utilize role playing, small groups, guest speakers, and field trips to enhance the experience of his students. In addition, John assists his students with mentorship in the areas of oral interviews and physical fitness preparation for careers in law enforcement.

John has spent my entire life living in the Whittier and La Habra areas, and has been married to his wife for over 40 years. John and his wife have three adult children and a granddaughter (see picture). He spends his spare time saltwater and freshwater fishing, as well as traveling.
